Encouraging the Arts

Circle is dedicated to arts education. We offer many opportunities for students to explore their God-given talents. Our goal is to expose students to the arts at an early age, cultivating a lifetime of appreciation and enjoyment. Every year, Circle's theatre program presents a full schedule of high-quality, family-friendly productions. Circle's reputation for excellence is well known in the community. We've twice been voted "Best Theatre Group" by the Orlando A-List.

We Offer:

Circle offers Art Class Electives to all 9th-12th grade students. We also feature an advanced Circle School of the Arts Theatre track to which students must apply and audition for acceptance. Circle School of the Arts offers an Arts Honors Diploma for students who successfully complete the four-year track.

Arts Electives | Open to all high school students, plus additional grades as noted

- Studio 2-D Art (open to 7th-8th graders)
- Acting 1, 2, 3, 4
- Dance Repertory 1-4
- Circle Studio Players (open to 7th-8th graders)

Circle School of the Arts Theatre Courses | Open to students by application and audition into the program

- Acting 1, 2, 3, 4 Honors
- Dance Repertory 1-4
- Circle Theatre Company

Instructors: Serve as artist-educators | Have years of experience as directors, designers, and professional actors | Help develop young Christian artists who are serious about their craft as well as encourage those just "trying something out" | Provide challenging coursework and guidance | Employ Stanislavsky and Meisner-based performance training | Provide mentoring and leadership classes specially designed to prepare young Christian artists to be a "light" in the art world

Parents: Encourage their student's God-given talents | Partner with Circle in the education process | Volunteer

Students: May enter the program at the beginning of any school year | Develop their skills and knowledge in all aspects of theatre | Gain skills that can be used in any area of life

This program is great for: Students who want to build upon their God-given talents in theatre arts | Students who want to learn from faculty with expertise in all styles and varieties of theatre from classical to musicals | Parents who want their students to be prepared for success in university and conservatory programs | Families who want to partake in the arts and have fun!
