Independent Home Education Student Participation

Circle Christian School, in accordance with the rules and policies of the Florida High School Athletic Association (FHSAA), allows independent home education students to participate on all of our athletic teams. In addition to completing and submitting the Circle Christian School and FHSAA and Athletic Forms, the following additional application and forms must be read, completed and submitted via Register My Athlete prior to the first day of practice:

Home Education Student Eligibility (FAQ)

Please review the FHSAA set of Frequently Asked Questions regarding eligibility to determine if your Home School program meets the requirements with the FHSAA to participate in athletics with Circle Christian School. If you have any questions regarding eligibility before completing the application and required forms, please contact Athletic Director Mark Caulfield.
