Learning through Literature

Explorations is a page-turning adventure through the wonderful world of children's literature. Explorations books are specially selected to capture imagination, teach deep truths, excite innovation, and explore God's wonderful world. Our goal is to create delight-filled, hands-on unit studies using the best in children's literature.

In our unit-study model, each academic activity and hands-on experience is connected to our beautifully illustrated children's books. Our book list is organized into themed units with specific books for each grade.

We offer:

- Discussion-based, hands-on learning in the classroom & at home
- Hyperlinked Home Lesson Plans for each book
- Grade-level classrooms with gentle structure and academic standards led by trained educators who create a richly layered learning environment

Subjects we cover in the classroom and at home:

Reading Comprehension | Writing Composition | Grammar | Vocabulary | Science | Social Studies | Bible | Art

Subjects you add to home studies: Math | Phonics/Reading Instruction | Handwriting | Spelling

Classroom teachers: Create hands-on learning environments and experiences | Lead lively book discussions | Teach writing composition | Introduce scientific inquiry | Explore diverse cultures | Craft beautiful art lessons

Parents: Receive grade-specific Home Lesson Plans (HLPs) that provide subject-by-subject, hyperlinked unit studies for each book | Learn how to use beautiful books

to teach and inspire their students in multiple subject areas | Receive a weekly newsletter full of photos

Students: Enjoy the best of children's literature | Participate in a self-contained classroom with an art class | Participate in quarterly Explorations Presents!

This program is great for: Students who love to create and explore | Students who need to move, ask questions, and share experiences in order to learn best | Parents who want to use beautifully illustrated children's books as the jumping off point into deeper academic and life lessons | Families who want to explore God's world by learning together
